

1841
SONG (From Pippa Passes)
Robert Browning

Browning, Robert (1812-1899) - British Victorian Poet, noted for his dramatic monologues, his rejection of overly-florid language, and his mastery of psychological characterization. In 1846 he married Elizabeth Barrett and shared with her one of the world's most celebrated romances. Song (From Pippa Passes) (1841) - "Pippa Passes," a poetic drama, was among Browning's first significant works. This extract includes the famous lines: God's in his Heaven- / All's right with the world.

SONG

The year's at the spring
And day's at the morn;
Morning's at seven;
The hillside's dew-pearled;
The lark's on the wing;
The snail's on the thorn:
God's in his heaven
All's right with the world!
